1 Programme Information

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: An appropriate 360 credit National Diploma (NQF 6) OR an appropriate Bachelor's degree (NQF 6/7). An appropriate diploma or degree will include sufficient disciplinary learning in appropriate academic fields to enable the development of subject specialisations. To be eligible for particular school subject specialisations in the PGCE (Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching), students must have passed at least one of the desired school subjects at second year or NQF Level 6 for the Senior Phase and the other desired school subject at third year or NQF Level 7 for the Further Education and Training.

2 Programme facts

The PGCE in Senior Phase and Further Education and Training Teaching will build on subject knowledge content, together with the principles, practices and methods of teaching, and workplace experience, to enable successful students to apply their learning as beginner teachers to implement the National Curriculum Statements. The specialisation of Hebrew, will allow qualifying teachers the opportunity to professionalise themselves as a Hebrew educator.

3 Who is this for?

Hebrew teachers with a focused interest in becoming a qualified Hebrew teacher.

4 How to apply

Fill out the application form by clicking: bit.ly/pgce-programme-application.
This will take you to our application portal.

5 Funding and Finance

There are 4 options for funding and finances:

1. Self-funding

Payment or part-payment to be effected by yourself. The Academy requires some self-payment for all programmes run.

2. Interest Free loans

South Africa has two Jewish interest-free loan providers - the Rambam Trust and JFLA (Jewish Free Loans Association). Both organisations have earmarked funds for Higher Education but are limited in nature.

3. Employer support

Your employer may be sponsoring some portion of your study fees.

4. Future Fund

If you wish to apply to the Future Fund, please fill in the additional Future Fund Application Form. Please note this is a bursary fund and disbursement is not guaranteed. Contact accounts@theacademy.org.za for the form.
